

Lukeny Pascoal

Legal technician

(+244) 226 430 291

EVLUK@aspadvogados.co.ao

Lukeny Pascoal collaborates with VdA Legal Partners since 2023, integrating ASP Advogados as a Legal technician.

He has worked on several transactions, with a focus on the oil & gas industry, advising leading clients in the sector on regulatory, contractual, corporate & commercial matters, foreign direct investment and shipping.

Awards and Rankings

Winner of the 3rd LUANDA ARBITRAL MOOT COURT (2021), representing (as a speaker) the Agostinho University Faculty of Law.

Honourable mention as Best Speaker at the 1st LUSOPHONE MOOT COURT - JALP - International Association of Young Portuguese-Speaking Lawyers (2021).

Academic background

Law degree University of Agostinho Neto Faculty of Law.

University Extension in Corporate Legal Advice by the Department of Scientific Research and Postgraduate Studies of the Faculty of Law of the Agostinho Neto University.

Training in Public-Private Partnerships given by the Ministry of Economy and Planning as part of its training programmes under the slogan "Unlocking and Implementing PPPs in Angola".

Module of Extrajudicial Dispute Resolution at Centre for Studies in Legal, Economic and Social Sciences of the Agostinho Neto University.

Training of trainers in International Humanitarian Law by the International Committee of the Red Cross - Regional Delegation, Pretoria.

Teaching chairs

Lecturer in Political Science and Constitutional Law at the Faculty of Law of the Agostinho Neto University.

Other professional background

Before joining the firm, he worked as a legal technician at IWS, Consulting & Business, where he provided legal advice on drafting various proposals and draft legislation, as well as legal advice on relevant public procurement procedures, providing specialised assistance and training to evaluation committees.

Member of

Is currently preparing his registration with the Angolan Bar Association as a Trainee Lawyer.

Languages

Portuguese, English.